The StartEast Team

Creative Unlimited Business & Entrepreneurs Support Programme

The Creative Unlimited project is designed to help economic recovery and growth in the creative, cultural and digital sectors in Norfolk and Suffolk and is a partnership between New Anglia LEP, University of East Anglia, Norwich University of the Arts, University of Suffolk, Suffolk County Council and Norfolk County Council (as part of the legacy of the StartEast programme). The project will help organisations and individuals develop and showcase their creative ventures through bespoke business workshops, masterclasses, mentoring and direct support. For any businesses or entrepreneurs interested in what this support could mean for you, register your interest here.

Lowestoft Virtual Creative Hub

To enable the growing creative sector in Lowestoft to reach its full potential and attract further investment, a new virtual hub has been launched. Funded by Arts Council England, the Virtual Creative Hub will provide creatives with a way to network, feel more connected and access information, training and funding opportunities, bringing creatives together through social media channels and an emerging place website, which will be launched later this summer.

The Hub is open to creatives who are based in Lowestoft or deliver work in the town, and will feature a programme of training, tool kits, networking sessions and bespoke 1-2-1 support.

Additionally a free Cultural Directory is in development for the new website, allowing organisations and creatives to promote their enterprises in one central place.

To register your interest in becoming a part of the Virtual Creative Hub and have a profile created for the Creative Directory, please read the privacy policy and complete the sign-up form.

Grants for Creatives - Lowestoft: Creative Unlimited

Working in partnership with Suffolk County Council, a small grant scheme, part of Creative Unlimited, funded by Suffolk Inclusive Growth Investment Fund, will be available for people who engage with the Hub. Awards of up to £1,000 are available to fund materials, exhibition equipment through to digital development, marketing and promotion.

Applications for grants under the Suffolk Inclusive Growth Investment Fund are now being accepted, with a deadline for all applications of 9am on 30 July 2021. All applications must be submitted via email on the official application form by the deadline to thinklowestoft@eastssuffolk.gov.uk. To apply for a grant, you must meet the criteria stipulated in the application guidance and join the Virtual Creative Hub where you will have your enterprise featured on the Creative Directory. Register here

Platform 2021: Monthly Workshops for Creative Businesses & Freelancers

Delivered Through Creative Unlimited

Platform 2021, delivered by Norwich University of the Arts, is a series of workshop sessions for people interested in starting their own creative business or becoming a freelancer.

Platform sessions are run by industry professionals who guide you through some of the key areas you need to know about when starting up. They cover research, branding, marketing, finance, legal and networking. Click here to see the full programme of events.

The series runs monthly with a new online workshop that will help you start or build your business. Join online on the Second Wednesday of every month at 2pm. The next session is: Growing Your Network, Wednesday 14 July 2021, 14:00 - 15:00. Sign-up at Meetup.com

CultureBanked

At CultureBanked.org and kendra.io, we are offering free services to artists who need to handle or generate 'data'.

This could be information about yourself, CV's, biography, prices, works, transactions, publicity, correspondence, marketing, provenance - pretty much everything! With the number of digital platforms growing, Artists - like everyone else - have to do more to 'keep up'. That's why we've built capacity to work with users to design artists' digital services (no fees apply).

We are a non-profit foundation supported by government grants to work with artists and rights owners on co-creating interfaces to manage and distribute their work. By making user-centric, interoperable services we enable artists to navigate social media, sales, accounting and publishing from one single place, but also to enable the data generated to interoperate with the multiple services you already use.

Celebrating Culture 2021 - campaign update

Thank you to everyone who has contributed, engaged, and been so supportive of the forthcoming Celebrating Culture 2021 campaign. Funded by the New Anglia LEP, Norfolk County Council, Suffolk County Council, Visit East of England, University of East Anglia, and the Interreg EXPERIENCE project, the aim is to help drive the recovery of our region's arts, culture, and heritage sectors, and encourage cultural tourism across Norfolk and Suffolk. Following recent creative, digital marketing and PR tenders, we're getting ready to launch!

3 ways to get involved:

1. Ensure your organisation is included in the 'Culture & Arts' What's On listings on the Visit East of England website - this will be the 'hub' for the campaign. Free listings can be uploaded here.
2. Share your high res images (with photographer's credit and permission) and promotional details of your upcoming events for inclusion in our ongoing PR and campaign content.
3. And finally, a free Marketing Toolkit will be made available to anyone who would like to promote the campaign and share the creative on your marketing channels.

To get involved or to find out more, contact the project manager Caroline Mayers at caroline@creativebeing.studio. Working alongside Elma Glasgow, Suffolk-based PR specialist and founder of Aspire Black Suffolk, we're collating inspirational inclusive itineraries, news stories, social media, and campaign materials that will showcase 'What's On' throughout 2021 and into 2022 for both regional and national audiences. We look forward to celebrating our cultural events in Norfolk and Suffolk
